Docket No. 2:19-cr-16-DBH
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
v.
COLIN HARLE
DEPUTY CLERK

AGREEMENT TO PLEAD GUILTY
(WITH STIPULATIONS AND APPEAL WAIVER)

The United States of America, by and through Halsey B. Frank, United States Attorney for the District of Maine, and David B. Joyce, Assistant United States Attorney, and Colin Harle (hereinafter "Defendant"), acting for himself and through his counsel, J. Hilary Billings, Esquire, enter into the following Agreement based upon the promises and understandings set forth below.

1. Guilty Plea. Defendant agrees to plead guilty to Counts Four and Five of the Superseding Indictment pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure (Fed. R. Crim. P.). Count Four of the Superseding Indictment charges Defendant with holding for sale a counterfeit drug, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 331(i)(3). Count Five of the Superseding Indictment charges Defendant with possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). The Government agrees to move to dismiss Counts One, Two, and Three of the Superseding Indictment at the time Defendant is sentenced on Counts Four and Five.

2. Sentencing/Penalties. Defendant agrees to be sentenced on the charges described above. Defendant understands that the penalties that are applicable to Count Four of the Superseding Indictment are as follows:

- A. A maximum prison term of 10 years;
- B. A maximum fine of $250,000;
- C. A mandatory special assessment of $100.00 for each count of conviction which Defendant agrees to pay at or before the time that he enters a guilty plea; and
- D. A term of supervised release of not more than three years. Defendant understands that Defendant's failure to comply with any of the conditions of supervised release may result in revocation of supervised release, requiring Defendant to serve up to two additional years in prison for any such revocation of supervised release pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583.

Defendant understands that the penalties that are applicable to Count Five of the Superseding Indictment are as follows:

- A. A mandatory minimum prison term of five years and a maximum prison term of life (imposed consecutively to any sentence imposed on Count Four);
- B. A maximum fine of $250,000;
- C. A mandatory special assessment of $100.00 for each count of conviction which Defendant agrees to pay at or before the time that he enters a guilty plea; and
- D. A term of supervised release of not more than five years. Defendant understands that Defendant's failure to comply with any of the conditions of supervised release may result in revocation of supervised release, requiring Defendant to serve up to five additional years in prison for any such revocation of supervised release pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583.

3. Agreements Regarding Sentencing. The parties agree to make the following non-binding recommendation as to sentencing:

- A. The parties agree to recommend that the Court find that the Defendant has accepted responsibility for the offenses of conviction, and that the Court should reduce the Defendant's Adjusted Offense Level pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1. The Government reserves the right not to recommend a reduction under U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1 if, at any time between his execution of this Agreement and sentencing, Defendant: (a) fails to admit a complete factual basis for the plea; (b) fails to truthfully admit his conduct in the offense of conviction; (c) engages in conduct which results in an adjustment under U.S.S.G. § 3C1.1; (d) falsely denies or frivolously contests relevant conduct for which the Defendant is accountable under U.S.S.G. § 1B1.3 or previous convictions that the defendant has sustained; or (e) engages in new criminal conduct. Defendant understands that he may not withdraw the guilty plea if, for any of the reasons listed above, the Government does not recommend that he receive a reduction in Offense Level for acceptance of responsibility.

- B. The United States agrees to recommend a sentence not to exceed 66 months.

The parties expressly agree and understand that should the Court reject either or both of the recommendations of the parties, Defendant will not thereby be permitted to withdraw his plea of guilty. The parties agree and understand that the Court has the discretion to impose any lawful sentence.

4. Appeal Waivers. Defendant is aware that Title 18, United States Code, Section 3742 affords a defendant the right to appeal the sentence imposed. Knowing that, Defendant waives the right to appeal the following:

- A. Defendant's guilty plea and any other aspect of Defendant's conviction in the above-captioned case; and
- B. A sentence of imprisonment that does not exceed 66 months.

Defendant's waiver of his right to appeal shall not apply to appeals based on a right that has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review.

The number of months mentioned in this paragraph does not necessarily constitute an estimate of the sentence that the parties expect will be imposed.

5. Consequences of Breach. If Defendant violates or fails to perform any obligations under this Agreement (“a breach”), the United States will be released from its obligations hereunder and may fully prosecute Defendant on all criminal charges that can be brought against Defendant. With respect to such a prosecution:

- A. The United States may use any statement that Defendant made pursuant to this Agreement, including statements made during plea discussions and plea colloquies, and the fact that Defendant pleaded guilty, and Defendant hereby waives any claim under Rule 410 of the Federal Rules of Evidence or Rule 11(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure that such statements and guilty plea are inadmissible.
- B. Defendant waives any and all defenses based on the statute of limitations with respect to any such prosecution that is not time-barred on the date that this Agreement is signed by the parties.

If the United States chooses to exercise its rights under this paragraph, the determination of whether Defendant has committed a breach shall be made by the Court upon an appropriate motion. In a proceeding on such motion, the United States shall have the burden to establish Defendant’s breach by a preponderance of the evidence.

6. Speedy Trial Waiver. Defendant agrees to waive, and hereby does waive, any and all rights he might have under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161-64, from the date of the execution of this Agreement and continuing thereafter through and including the date upon which sentence is imposed. In the event that the Court determines that Defendant has breached this Agreement, as set forth in Paragraph 6 of this Agreement, then the waiver described in this Paragraph shall continue through and including the date on which the Court determines that such a breach has occurred. Defendant expressly consents to the entry of an Order by the Court excluding such periods of time from such consideration.

7. Forfeiture. Defendant agrees to waive any claim to, and assist the United States in effecting the forfeiture or other transfer of, any property that may be subject to forfeiture to the United States under any law of the United States including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. A 2011 Audi S4 assigned VIN number WAUBGAFL3BA167250;
- b. $5,600 in United States Currency;
- c. A Hi-Point Model C9, 9mm pistol, bearing serial number P1907044.

8. Validity of Other Agreements; Signature. This Agreement supersedes any prior understandings, promises, or conditions between this Office and Defendant. However, in the event that Defendant fails to enter his guilty plea or is allowed to withdraw his guilty plea entered hereunder, and the Court determines that Defendant has not breached this Agreement, then any proffer agreement between the parties shall remain in effect. No additional understandings, promises, or conditions will be entered into unless in writing and signed by all parties. The signature of Defendant in the space designated signifies his full and voluntary acceptance of this Agreement.

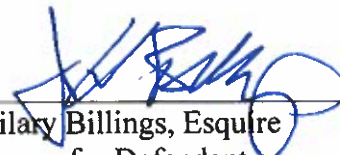

I have read this Agreement and have carefully reviewed every part of it. I understand it and I have voluntarily agreed to it.
